We will advise the Court of your opposition to the Scheduling Order it entered on February 25, 2022.

You still have not provided us with deposition dates. As stated in my prior emails, we are willing to extend the discovery period to accommodate your clients' request for Zoom depositions. In light of David's surgery on June 21, we are proposing July 6 or 7 for your clients' depositions. We would also be willing to conduct their Zoom depositions on Saturday, July 9th or Sunday, July 10th, subject to David's availability and the availability of a court reporter.

Good morning Brandy,

We have already mediated with Dr. Guerra in this matter, and see no value in spending our client's money on additional mediation, given your expressed position at the last one.

We are unaware of any mediation requirement or requirement by order of the court. Please feel free to forward us your motion.

Ms. Guitelman-

We still have not received a response from you to the email I sent you yesterday at 1:25 p.m. CST. Please advise whether you and your clients intend to comply with the Court's order requiring the parties to return to mediation. If we do not receive a response from you by 12:00 p.m. CST today, we will proceed with filing our Motion to Compel and for Sanctions.

I checked Don Philbin's availability again this morning. He is no longer available on July 7th. However, he is still available for Zoom mediation on July 11th and 12th. We need to get on his calendar as soon as possible.

Mediation is not optional. The Court ordered the parties back to mediation. If you and your clients refuse to comply with the Court's order, we will file a Motion to Compel and for Sanctions and advise the Court accordingly. Please let me know today so we can get our Motion on file. If your clients intend to comply with the Court's Order, please advise today as to your and your clients' availability for a Zoom mediation on July 6, 7, 11, or 12.

We asked for dates for your clients' depositions almost 2 weeks ago on May 6th and heard nothing back from you. You still have not provided any dates in your email below. It is already late-May and our "early June" calendars are already full. We will agree to Zoom depositions as an accommodation, but only on the dates proposed of June 20, 21, 23, 24, or 27.

Good afternoon,

Thanks for checking in.

Brandy, in regards to the mediation, we need to know what has changed from the previous mediation offer. Our clients have mediated with Dr. Guerra multiple times in the past and are left with the notion that your client never had an interest in a resolution. Therefore, we request to know what has changed for your client this time around. Additionally, if we are to go the mediation route again, we would only consider half a day with Don.

Brandy and David, in regards the depositions, would both of you be agreeable to have them via Zoom? If so, we agree to extend the same courtesy for our deposition requests of your clients. I can let you know which dates are best for our clients, but I believe early June will be best for depositions via Zoom.

Good luck with the surgery David, hope you feel better.

All-

Don Philbin has since become booked up through June 30th while we've been awaiting Plaintiffs' response. Our June calendars have been filling up as well. Philbin is currently available July 6-7 and the week of July 11th. The deadline to mediate is June 29th, but I believe we can, by agreement, schedule mediation on one of these July dates, especially in light of the 4th of July holiday falling so close to the June 29th deadline. The deadline to file dispositive motions is July 13 so I propose that we mediate before this deadline.

We propose the following:

- Extend the discovery deadline to June 30th (the Scheduling Order allows us to do so by agreement)
- Schedule the in-person depositions of Plaintiffs on June 20, 21, 23, 24, or 27
- Mediate (in person or Zoom) on July 6, 7, 11, or 12

We need to get on Philbin's calendar as soon as possible. We are confirming our clients' availability regarding the July mediation dates and will let everyone know as soon as possible. Please let us know today if you are agreeable with the foregoing.
